About

Embracing tradition and home grown resources are at the heart of Grace's brand and this is reflected in everything we do. We are committed to delivering truly unique, high quality Irish products, using the best of locally sourced ingredients and trusted producers.

Our distinctive shamrock shaped biscuits are filled with an unrivalled homely goodness to create a fresh, natural taste that is second to none with:

- - No artificial colours or flavours
- - No hydrogenated fat
- - No Genetically Modified ingredients

All of this has helped Grace's become quickly established as one of Northern Ireland's leading locally produced food brands. So whether it's a home made taste, a taste of home, or a home from home that you're searching for, Grace's will give you a memorable and authentic experience of Irish food at its very best.
